

Figure S13. Distribution of total number of residues per complex extracted by OR-queries in two sets. The data is normalized by the total number of complexes in the corresponding set.